DIED. LARRIMER—Of Consumption, in Chambersburg, Gallia county, Ohio, Mr. Wm. Larrimer.
Aged 41 years. He was born April 6th, 1229, in Jefferson county, Ohio, came to Gallia county, Ohio, in 1854, and died August 3d, 1870. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when fourteen years old and experienced religion, and he was faithful until death. His sufferings were great and protracted, yet he bore them with Christian patience and without complaining of his sufferings, giving clear and satisfactory evidence of his preparation for death, and as he drew near the closing scene of life he became very happy.
He died in great peace, and doubtless has entered upon that rest that remains for the people of God.
He leaves a wife and three children, and a widowed mother, and brothers and sisters, and a large circle of relatives and friends—but their loss is his gain. May they all follow his example and meet him in Heaven. May the blessings of God rest richly and copiously upon the wife and children, and may wife and children, and mother and brothers and sisters, and all, meet to part no more, where death and separation will never take place, but where they will bloom in immortal youth in the bowers of bliss, forever and ever.
